Introduction:

McHenry County College (MCC) is committed to maintaining a safe and violence free environment in which students and staff can learn and work. Although some McHenry County College departments and constituent groups may be more directly involved, violence prevention on MCC campuses is a cooperative endeavor involving all individuals and college departments. It is vital that the offices of Campus Police, Student Conduct, Behavioral Intervention Team (BIT), Human Resources, and Faculty work together to create a culture and environment in which acts of violence are not tolerated and steps are taken to:

- anticipate, recognize, and prevent potential violent incidents before they occur;
- convey a unified message that incidents of violence will not be tolerated;
- implement educational programs that will further the goal of violence prevention; and,
- respond to acts of violence in a manner that sends a message that campus violence will not be tolerated

The Campus Violence Protection Plan (CVPP) is intended to bring together all college violence prevention, reduction, and response programs, and create a unified approach to address potential and real acts of violence, which may occur on campus. To aid in accomplishing this goal, MCC has established a Behavioral Intervention Team (BIT) for students and Employee Behavior Intervention.

Community Responsibility:

The college is committed to developing preventive measures, including a Behavioral Intervention Team (BIT) for at-risk students and employees. Other initiatives include pre-employment screening for all employees and volunteers to increase employee and student awareness, and training of staff regarding early recognition and response to potential and real acts of violence.

- A. Responsibility to Report: It is the responsibility of all campus community members to promote and maintain an environment free from violence at all college facilities and college sponsored events. This responsibility includes being aware of one's surroundings and immediately reporting incidents, behavior or actions that seem unusual, disruptive, suspicious, threatening, or violent in nature.
- B. Reporting Process: The College expects its community members to immediately report any situation of in-progress or imminent violence to Campus Police at 815- 455-8733 or 911. For situations of potential violence that is not imminent, or "in-progress" reports or concerns should be made to Campus Police, Student Conduct, or a member of the Behavioral Intervention Team (BIT). For potential violence involving employees, reports of concern should be made to the AVP of Human Resources, or Campus Police. Human Resources will evaluate employee concerns. It is the responsibility of anyone receiving such a report, to convey the report to the appropriate authority and assure that the BIT for student concerns and Human Resources for employees is made aware of the concern. In some cases, employee concerns should be brought to the attention of Human Resources and the BIT.

Examples of behaviors that should be reported include, but are not limited to:

- A slow or radical change in a person's behaviors, appearance, or work performance.
- Aggressive or irrational behavior in words or actions.
- Severe depression, unhappiness, or radical mood swings.
- Inability to control anger or serious confrontational display.
- Unusual reactions to normal situations or obstacles.
- Lack of emotion, especially compassion or empathy.
- Threats or acts of violence.
- Damage to property.
- Expressions of suicidal thoughts, feelings, or acts
- Any action or behavior that "could reasonably be interpreted" as leading to violence.
- Threatening statements, writing, or drawings

Other examples of behaviors, in addition to those described above may be displayed by employees and be reason for concern. These include, but are not limited to:

- Attendance problems
- Decreased productivity
- Adverse impact of supervisor's time requiring on-going counseling about personal problems, issues dealing with co-workers, personal stress/depression
- Inconsistent work patterns
- Concentration problems at work
- Safety issues or increased accidents or self-injuries at work
- Poor health or hygiene
- Evidence of potential drug use, alcohol use, or abuse

- C. Other Applicable Policies: If an incident involves conduct or behavior of a student, the college department responsible for handling such matters will address the issue. This may include Student Conduct, Campus Police, or BIT. If an incident involves an employee, Human Resources will take the lead and use whatever other needed departments as resources. If the incident involves a violation of law or disturbance to the campus by a visitor or community member, Campus Police would take necessary and appropriate action.
