What’s Happening in Journalism at MCC?
Current Spring Course Offerings

• Intro to Mass Comm
• Intro to Broadcasting
• Intro to Film (6 Full sections, 30 students enrolled in the Wintersession)
• Advanced Film (new elective that has 26 students enrolled)
Other activities for our students

• Huntley Radio Interns (3)
• Intern hired at Star 105.5
• Options for Sports Broadcasting for Women’s and Men’s Scots Basketball via online
• MSR (MCC Student Radio is highly popular with students in our commons)
• Partnership with our TARTAN
What’s on the Horizon?

- Grants for equipment (Mark Dougher’s office)
- Digital Media/Journalism certificate
- Transfer relationships (Laurie Cubit’s office)
Speaking of Transfer relationships, Laurie Cubit and Jim Stockwell got a chance to tour DePaul’s Lincoln Park Campus this past summer...

MCC has a program which allows MCC students to start learning the basics of film here and then transfer to DePaul to complete a film degree. This is much more cost effective than attending school in LA or New York.
This is DePaul’s Cinespace. A storage facility to the right for all the equipment students can use for their studies.
Here is a closer look at all of their “toys”. This is the same equipment professionals use.
A small glimpse at what is known as a “boneyard”. Production Designers and Set Dressers use items for their sets. Everything from lamps to bowling trophies...
One of the soundstages. A full house in the foreground and a “Pub” set in the background. All ready to be lit by production lights on the moveable grids.
Any other questions or thoughts, please feel free to contact any journalism instructor.

Presentation by Jim Stockwell
Instructor of Film and Broadcast Journalism jstockwell@mchenry.edu  815-455-8535