

DISCORD

Online Chat Community for Chi Upsilon Members, Officers, Alumni, Advisors, and Provisional Members

1. Visit www.discordapp.com to download the phone/tablet/desktop app.
2. If you do not have an account, please sign up for one using your own credentials (typically your username is your email address).
3. Once you create an account, follow this link to join our private group for the Chi Upsilon Official Discord channel: <https://discord.gg/5MwxnZJ>.
4. When you join our channel, please go to the #start_here text channel to see this pinned post, and follow the directions to get started: "Welcome to the Official Phi Theta Kappa Chi Upsilon Chapter Discord! If you are a new member to the Discord, please type both your first and last name along with your position (Provisional Member, Member, Officer, Advisor, or Alumni) and an officer will update you with your permissions for the Server. Also, if your position in PTK changes at all, (for example: from Member to Alumni) please also type here to have your official position changed. Thank you and welcome to the Discord!"
5. After following the directions above, please go to the #general channel to start chatting with our members! There will be specific channels for each subgroup in our chapter as well that you can hang out in. There are even voice channels so you can voice chat with other members!

Thank you for joining our official Discord channel. We look forward to keeping in touch with both current, former, and provisional members! Make sure to check out our chat often!