- The college credit awarded under the provisions of this agreement will not be held in escrow.
- The student must be enrolled at MCC on the 10th day of the semester, within 27 months following high school graduation.
- The student is responsible for contacting the Credentials Evaluation office to earn articulated credit.
- The college course covered by this articulated agreement is designed to lead to the AAS degree or certification of proficiency in this program.
- This agreement is subject to review and renewal on a bi-annual basis or as needed.

PROGRAM SPECIFIC REQUIREMENT:

The student should be classified as a Program Completer in any of the secondary CIP Code programs listed or has taken the secondary courses during their 12th grade year in high school.

As the instructor, I am recommending that this student receive college credit per this agreement.
