OTHER BUSINESS

Ms. Larson announced that MCC Fast Track students will be featured on the CBS Nightly News on May 3 at 5:30 p.m. central time. She announced also that a drug take back event will take place on April 30, and police stations in the area will accept unneeded prescription drugs, rather than have these drugs go into the water system. Ms. Larson stated that the new Green Guide is available; copies are available at tonight's meeting. She thanked Ms. Pat Dieckhoff for a marvelous job on the Green Guide. The guide will appear in the Northwest Herald and will be available at most libraries.

Mr. Adams stated that he attended a District 50 superintendents' roundtable meeting, and spoke highly of the sharing between community Economic Development Corporation people, Chamber people and business people who meet quarterly to develop and strengthen community relationships.

The Board welcomed new Trustees Ms. Kisser and Ms. Liddell, congratulated Mr. Adams and welcomed Student Trustee Morrobel.
